Crossfield Rebekahs Celebrate

In honour of the 21st anniversary of Justice Rebekah Lodge No. 62. The members were hostesses to their families at a chicken banquet on Monday evening. Some fifty men, women and children sat down to tables laden with good things to eat.

We were very fortunate in having as our guests Sister Elizabeth Webb, President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sisters Chidlon and Pate and Brother Webb of Anaka Lodge Calgary.

After partaking of a bounteous supper several were called upon to speak. Sister Webb spoke on her pleasant associations with the Crossfield Lodge since its institution. Sister Ableman, as a charter member, spoke of the founding of the Lodge and named the charter members. Sisters Richardson and Pogue on the order and what it meant to them, and Sister Ballam as a new member.

Sister Fox, P.P., that performed the pleasant duty of presenting Sister Mary Green with a Veteran Jewel as a member of twenty-five years standing.

Sister Laut also presented Sister Green with a very pretty silver cake plate, expressing the wish that while she was leaving our immediate neighbourhood she would still be with us whenever possible.

After the tables were cleared games and cards were enjoyed by all, prizes going to Mrs. Evelyn Lilley and Mr. Ian Laut for bridge and Miss Vera Atkin and Mr. Earl Richardson for Chinese Checkers.—Contributed.

ANGLICAN CHURCH NOTES.

The church was beautifully decorated for Easter by some of the J.W.A., Mrs. Currie and Mrs. Cartwright. A splendid congregation was there to take part in the service.

Flowers were given by Mrs. Arnott, Mrs. Bayle, Mrs. Mossop, Miss Robinson, Mrs. Currie, Mrs. Cartwright and the J.W.A.

UNITED CHURCH NOTES.

Country services will be held next Sunday at Madden and Oneil.

Regular Meeting M.D. of Rosebud No.280

Council meeting was held at Crossfield on Saturday 8th instant.

The council purchased from The Union Tractor & Harvester Co. a caterpillar tractor, an elevator grinder and a blade grader.

The estimates for municipal purposes were discussed and the mill rate set at 7-mills. Same as last year.

E. M. Crisfield was appointed weed inspector.

Crescent Height Church Presents Easter Cantata

The choir of the Crescent Heights United Church, Calgary came out to the local church last Friday evening and gave their sacred Cantata, "From Gethsemane to Golgotha" with Rev. F. R. Harbach, minister, conducting the order of service, leading the prayers and reading the scriptures. Mr. J. P. Austen leader secured a remarkable response from his choir as they interpreted the intense experiences of the Last Supper, Gethsemane, the Trial, and the Crucifixion. The mob scenes were especially realistic and educative of the destructiveness of designing leaders who work through misdirected popular excitement.

The audience was deeply moved in appreciation of the Good Friday theme of the power of One who suffered in love.

A large congregation gathered in the Easter service of Sunday evening. The choir sang Stainer's "For God So Loved the World" and Mrs. M. Jones directed a pageant of the Easter morning discovery. The sympathetic portrayal given by the young people produced an impression which may well be never forgotten.

Mrs. J. Belshaw and son, Reggie, were Calgary visitors Tuesday.

The C.G.I.T. gave Miss Wilda Laut a surprise party Thursday last, in the Masonic Hall, on the occasion of her birthday on Good Friday (the next day). She was presented with some beautiful chinaware.

F. Collicutt Again Elected President of Hereford Breeders

Hereford Breeders Review Notable Year's Work

Attendance at the annual meeting of the Alberta Hereford Breeders' Association held in Victoria Park, Calgary, during the week, created a new record in the history of the association. Reports given by Frank Collicutt internationally known breeder, of Crossfield, and president of the association, showed a year of outstanding progress for the breed, with victories scored at many exhibitions, including new honors for Canadian Herefords at the Golden Gate Exposition at San Francisco.

Mr. Collicutt said that the display of bulls at the Calgary show again recorded improvement, making a n impressive exhibit, but he considered the reduction in the number of steers entered worthy of comment. The breed had been advanced to a most prominent place in the industry and it should be remembered that it would be judged finally by the quality of the the steers it produced.

Mr. Collicutt also asked for even greater interest in the calf clubs which would have an important bearing on the future history of the industry. As a memorial to George Collicutt, Mr. Collicutt has made a donation of $100 a year to encourage the boys and girls in production of baby beef in the clubs which are gaining in popularity each year.

In the election of officers, Mr. Collicutt was returned as president of the association, with W. C. Bissell, Viking, as vice-president, and W. A. Crawford-Frost, Nanton, director on the executive. John Wilson, Sr., of Innisfail, was re-elected Secretary treasurer. Other directors elected were: Chas. Bull, Calgary, Thomas Hughes, High River; John Francis, Carstairs, and A. G. Spooner, Calgary.

The Secretary's report, read by Mr. Wilson, showed the finances in a sound position, with a surplus which was a gratifying advance on a year ago.

Local Implement Dealer Stages Tractor Show

Some ten tractors and other I.H.C. power farm machinery was the scene of attraction on main street during the weekend when W. Laut, local machinery dealer demonstrated and delivered this machinery to farmers. The purr of the tractors made Crossfield quite lively and reminded the farmers that spring work would soon begin. The machinery displayed had been sold, and the following are those to whom it was delivered:

L. Taks, F. Laut, R. Bills, C. Nasadyk, Jas. Morrison, H. Jensen, Alton High and Hobart Abra.

Arnold Borden's house burned down Sunday at 4:00 p.m. (Old Chas. Campbell place.)

Several parcels of land have changed hands in the district during recent months. We understand they were all cash deals which speaks well for Crossfield district. We have also been informed that T. Tredaway has had several prospective buyers looking over the district the past two weeks. This news should be gratifying to many of our citizens, as it proves we are in one of the best agricultural districts in the province.

Short Apple Pie.

When a lady is short of apples she makes short apple pie. In a print shop scattered and mixed type is pie, but we regret to say that, owing to shortage of type, time and space, it is necessary to hold over some valuable news items, including the Easter examination results.

T. Tredaway Elected To Represent Crossfield At Bow River Meeting

At a meeting of the Bow River Liberal Constituency, held in Calgary recently, at the Public Library, Mr. T. Tredaway was elected on the executive to represent Crossfield and district. A convention will be held in Calgary the latter part of May. The date will be announced later.

Inclement Weather Holds Up Spring Work

Although the latter part of March was agreeable and plans were already made for spring work, it only required one snow storm the beginning of this month to halt these plans and hold up seeding.

There is still some skating going on in other parts of the province, and the wintery weather we are experiencing in this district reminds one of the days of February.

Junior Boxers Stage Big Bout

Monday afternoon meant an opportunity worth while for Mervin Patmore and Howard High, when they gathered a large number of spectators at a bout staged on main street. Apparently this was not a very friendly affair, as Howard went home crying. However, his father offered him a purse of two dollars if he sent the other home crying the next day. As yet we have not seen or heard anything of the next bout. Perhaps it turned out to be a mothers affair.

At any rate, the first fight was a real five-round affair, and a number of spectators provided a ring around them so that no one else would see or interfere.

Amendment.

In our editorial of the 30th of March we mentioned the fact that some of the high school students were responsible for a small boy having been forced to wade in cold water in order to get home late one night.

After speaking to the boy, we find that the story we heard was somewhat different, and withdraw the statement made, trusting, however, that the students are looking forward to that day when they will be at the helm and set a good example for the younger boys.

Board of Trade

In last week's edition, in the letter of Mr. G. Day, he stated that a correction was necessary in our write-up of the previous week, which said that the membership committee of the Board being the poorest, Mr. T. Tredaway was elected chairman. This should have read, that owing to the fact that this committee was the poorest last year, Mr. Tredaway was elected chairman for the coming year and would elect his own colleagues.

Being president, Mr. Tredaway was always at the head of the membership committee, and it was greatly through his efforts that the membership was increased.

Although some changes have been made in the other committees, men of the same caliber are at the head and take active interest in the affairs of the community at large. What is needed is more members and more people to take interest, giving vent to their opinions and help bring about those projects which mean betterment to the community.

A Board of Trade is operated on the same principle as a government, it is the voice and will of the people that brings about those things that are of mutual benefit to the town and community. All business is submitted to the members and each is given an opportunity to express his opinion, and when all sides are carefully viewed and discussed, a vote is taken and those who are in the committee, chosen to deal with the matter, are able and willing workers, seeking to save expense and still have the best possible.

Thus, we carry on; niggers often get into the woodpile, and it means repiling the wood, which is extra time and energy. However, if we continue to look on the bright side of life, give all a fair chance and stand firm on our own ground, we will eventually reach the high mark for which everyone aims, whether political, or otherwise.

Cameron Carmichael says: Iggy chasing the girls into the cafe. Buster playing nursemaid. Mickey doing the flugy down the front street.

Wilda and Lew driving a tractor last Friday. Maybe Wilda was only giving instructions and pointing out directions.

The printer driving past the police barracks just to show he had his new license plates.

Cal says: Always say no to everything you don't understand. Last week he said, remember your wife's birthday and forget her age; instead of her name.

D. J. Hall and S. Willis growing beards. They still maintain Happy would have them beat, if he stepped out with a big beard.

We wonder why Rus and Walt were so quiet Tuesday afternoon. Perhaps they had something for this column, but it involved them, so they thought it best to keep mum.

It's funny Chuck doesn't even know the high school students in Crossfield, after spending most of his life here.

The World of Wheat.

By H. G. L. Strange

'Farmers lose, over a term of years, as much money from root rot damage to their crops as they do from Black Stem Rust!'

This startling statement was made to me several years ago by a leading Canadian authority on plant diseases. All that I have heard since tends to confirm what he then said.

But we know that rust has taken on the average, over a term of years, about 10 percent of the farmer's crops. The toll taken by these root rot diseases, too, therefore, must be very great. Can anything be done to stop this large steady annual loss?

Fortunately for the farmer it has been found that treating the seed before sowing with mercurial dust, Ceresan or Leytosan, greatly lessens damage from root rot diseases.

The mercurial dust treatment has the further advantage that it will also prevent damage from stinking smut or bunt.

The use of fertilizer, too, sown into the ground with the seed is now a common practice on our prairies. With it the crop matures earlier, shows a higher yield and the grain has a better grade. Besides this, fertilizer certainly decreases damage from wire worms. It is good practise, and farmers I recommend should certainly consider it.

Taxes! Taxes!

Tax his head, tax his hide,
Let the government officials ride.
Tax his cow, tax his calf,
Tax his horse, tax his ass.
Tax his houses, tax his land,
Tax the blisters on his hands.
Tax his car and tax his gas.
Tax the road that he must pass.
Tax the payroll, tax the sale,
Tax the old man's hard-earned kale.
Tax his pipe and tax his smoke—
Teach him government's no joke.
Tax the water, tax the air,
Tax the sunlight if you care.
Tax the living, tax the dead,
Tax the unborn ere they're fed.
Tax his coffin tax his shrouds,
Tax their souls beyond the skies.
Tax them all and tax them well,
Tax them to the gates of hell,

Carlton Morse, author of "One Man's Family," has written over three million words for his characters to say in the weekly presentations of the ever-popular saga of family life.

Jack Benny is hesitant about showing the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce members through his new home, for fear some may resent the fact that every room, except the dining room, is equipped with a large open fireplace.

Moss Hart, one of America's leading playwrights, joins the board of experts of "Information Please" on Wednesday, April 19, when the popular quiz program goes on the air over CFAC. With him as his fellow guest will be Rex Stout, noted author of mystery stories, who appeared once before on the program.

Along with its visiting celebrities, "Information Please" will have its expert semeritus, John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams. Grilling them in his usual thorough manner will be Clifton P. Fadiman.

The newcomer to the board of experts, Moss Hart, has collaborated with another "Information Please" expert, George S. Kaufman, in many outstanding stage successes. The team of Kaufman and Hart started their career as a writing team with the sensation "Once in a Lifetime" which opened in October 1932. Satirizing Hollywood, it was so successful that the film Capital e swallowed its pride and made a movie of it.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

As an act of courtesy "Letters to the Editor" are published, and the Chronicle cannot be held responsible for the opinions expressed.

Crossfield, Alta. April 11,
Editor Crossfield Chronicle:

Dear Sir: In reply to Mr. G. F. Day's letter of April 3rd.

I am glad to know that our citizens of Water Valley are interested in the doings of our Board of Trade.

We have been endeavouring for some time to get a Provincial Grant to aid Beaver Dam and Rosebud Municipal Districts in improving and gravelling the road leading to your district, so you see we are also interested in you.

Yes! You are right: about our membership Committee. It is one of our best and no doubt Mr. Tredaway will give you and your neighbours a chance to join us.

We do not discuss political issues at our meetings; But go right after the many local matters that we have and can accomplish.

No! we will not feed any body to the lions.

The Board of Trade is where all the people "of various religious and political views" of the town and country meet for mutual benefit.

Yours respectfully

O. E. JONES, President

Editor Crossfield Chronicle

Dear Sir:

A letter was published in your issue of April 6 inst., written by Mr. G. F. Day of Water Valley. Personally, although Mr. Day says he is a little bit nertz on this "no money" bug, I do not think he is. He evidently has the right slant and with him I beg that the Crossfield Board of Trade read the book, "The Conspiracy of the House of Morgan." As a side line they might read "The Instructor" of which there are several copies in Crossfield. Truth is stranger than fiction, and a darn sight more disconcerting.

Mr. Erick Louw, M. P. South African House, is quoted in one of the editorials of The Albertan April 8th issue, being a strong Britisher, he is trying to stop all aliens or people of foreign extraction, unable to speak the English language, from coming into the country. They must be faced with the same issue that Canada is.

Sir Alfred Kemp asked the Prime Minister of England in the House of Commons if he would consider setting aside a small corner of England as a national home for the English. Laugh Clown Laugh.

King George VI

A HISTORY IN THIRTY

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

"A perfect woman, nobly planned
To warn, to comfort, and command;

And yet a spirit still, and bright
With something of angelic light."

—Woodsworth.

It is no secret that the Duke of York, the present King George the Sixth, developed a deep feeling for the bright young Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, now Queen Elizabeth, at an early date in the life of the youngest daughter of the fourteenth Earl of Strathmore, and when this friendship developed into a romance there was no objection against the match on the part of the late King George the Fifth or Queen Mary, though she was a commoner and not of Royal birth. For many years there was a strict regulation which compelled members of the Royal Family to marry only within their own ranks. This rule of intermarriage between Royalty was brought over by King George the First as part of the Hanoverian ideas but the beloved Queen Victoria departed from this custom by consenting to the marriage of her daughter Princess Louise to the Marquess of Lorne and subsequently the Queen granted her permission to the marriage between her granddaughter and the Earl of Fife. The late King George the Fifth did not hesitate to follow this precedent and he abolished the Hanoverian rule on the regulation of Royal marriages in so far as it pertained to his younger children who could choose their husbands or wives from the first three ranks of the nobility, namely dukes, marquesses and earls.

Therefore, the fact that Lady Elizabeth Bowes Lyon was not born of Royal blood did not prove an obstacle to the development of a romance between the young Prince and herself.

Queen Elizabeth was born on August 4th, 1900, at St. Paul's Waldenbury where her father, Lord Strathmore, had a beautiful estate. She was the tenth child and the youngest member of her family, which could be traced back for several centuries in the history of Scotland. When her father inherited the Earldom in 1904, he received three beautiful country homes, one being the house at St. Paul's Waldenbury where the Queen was born, the other at Strathlam, and the third the famous Glamis Castle in Forfarshire, which is one of the oldest houses in Britain and which is the setting of the tragedy of Shakespeare's "Macbeth." The latter estate has been in Queen Elizabeth's family for more than five hundred years, dating back to the days when the daughter of King Robert, the Second, Jean, married Sir John Lyon.

These three homes formed the background for the early life of the girl who was destined to become the wife of the King. The environment and the surroundings encouraged the child to develop many of the sound characteristics which can be recognized easily in the Queen today who is a constant companion of His Majesty, with everyone agreeing that she is an invaluable help on account of her good breeding, wisdom and tact.

Her parents and the other members of her family enjoyed absolute freedom of thought and action, with these democratic leanings being inculcated into the minds and hearts of the youngsters from their early nursery days. In fact, there are many stories of the merry mischief of Queen Elizabeth and her brother David, who was her favourite in those days. However, even then there were signs that the young lady possessed a quality of wisdom and tact that was almost unnatural in a child

of that tender age
There is no doubt that the memories of those happy days are often recalled by Queen Elizabeth, but it is more frequently remembered by others who study the character and life of Her Majesty as it relates to the aid which she brought to King George the Sixth when he ascended the throne.

Water Valley Notes

George Day is haunting a new pair of dress boots which some of the neighbours are afraid they will have to pay for, as they were obtained by the bonus on Alberta Transfer Voucher expenditures. It should be a simple matter for any person to get some of the bonus themselves. If we really are going to be taxed to pay this, why not get our share?

With the opening up of spring all the saw mills are operating full blast, but we would suggest waiting for better road to do any hauling.

The W.S.C.A. held their first meeting at the home of Mrs. T. Fieldhouse on Thursday April 6, and according to their own acc'ts had a wonderful time and a dainty lunch. The only fly in the ointment was the muddy roads. Mrs. T. Fieldhouse President, Mrs. S. Jardine, Vice-President; Mrs. Geo. Day, Secretary treasurer.

We understand Mrs. W. G. Day is returning to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Day after an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Anderson, of Balzac.

News sometimes escapes us for a while but we usually catch up. We discovered just the other day that Mr. and Mrs. Jason Herron had a baby boy about a month old. Good going Jack and Anne.

A meeting of the ratepayers of I.D. 282 will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday April 15th, in the Water Valley Hall to elect a Road foreman for the coming season.

We hear that Henry Borton was celebrating his birthday on Friday last and took a bath in the pool beside A. Sailor's store.

Five Minutes After I Die

Loved ones will weep o'er my silent face,	Mated for aye with my chosen throng, Long is eternity, O so long.
Dear ones will clasp me in sad embrace,	Then woe is me if my soul be wrong, Five minutes after I die.
Shadows and darkness will fill the place,	Oh, what a fool—hard the word, but true
Five minutes after I die,	Passing the Saviour with death in view.
Faces that sorrow I will not see,	Doing a deed I can ne'er undo
Voices that murmur will not reach me	Five minutes after I die.
But where, Oh, where will my spirit be?	If I am flinging a fortune away,
Five minutes after I die,	If I am wasting salvation's day,
Quickly the years of my life have flown,	"Just is my sentence," my soul shall say.
Gathering treasures I thought my own,	Five minutes after I die.
There I must reap from the seed I have sown	Thanks be to Jesus for pardon free,
Five minutes after I die,	He paid my debt on Mount Calvary's tree.
Naught to repair the good I lack,	Paradise Gates will enfold even me,
Fixed to the goal of my chosen track,	Five minutes after I die.
No room to repent; no turning back,	O marvelous grace that has rescued me
Five minutes after I die,	O joyous moment when Jesus I see,
Now I can stifle convictions stirred,	O happy day when like Him I'll be.
Now I can silence the Voice oft heard,	Five minutes after I die.
Then the fulfilment of God's sure word,	Contributed.
Five minutes after I die,

The Week in Edmonton.

A poignant note was struck early in Monday's proceedings when Premier Aberhart and leaders of the Opposition voiced regret at the death of William E. Hayes, Social Credit member for Stony Plain and a member of the Social Credit Board. Rank and file members followed, and all were unanimous in their expressions of sorrow at the passing of an extremely likeable and kindly public servant.

Mr. D. M. Duggan, leader of the conservative party, said that in such a time all party affiliations were forgotten. He added that no matter how one disagreed with the beliefs of Mr. Hayes, it was impossible to become an enemy. He was a gentleman, always. Mr. E. L. Gray spoke in similar vein, and he was followed by N. B. James Acadia, and S. A. Berg, Alexandra, who said he had lost one of the best pals he ever had. G. L. MacLachlan, Chairman of the Social Credit Board, also spoke highly of his late colleague. "His memory inspires us to press on," he said.

At the post-session caucus among Social Credit members, they decided to accept 50 pc. of their Sessional Indemnities in Treasury Vouchers. This will mean an excess of $50,000 circulating in that form. Total appropriation for legislative purposes ran to approximately $129,000. M.L.A.'s receive an indemnity of $2,000. Cabinet Ministers and the Chairman of the Social Credit Board receive indemnities of $1,800.

Important Bills passed during the session include the Marketing Act; the Pipe Lines Control Act; the Petroleum Products Price Control Act; the revised Limitations of Action Act; the new Lands Act and the Public Stockyards Act.

was elected as secretary-treasurer

To represent the newly formed association on the Unity Council of Alberta, E. King, former mayor of this town and well-known business man, was elected as Councillor.

Twelve directors will be elected at a further meeting to be held in the town of Champion at an early date.

Speakers participating in the above meeting on invitation, were Don J. McKinnon, president of the Gleichen Unity organization, Thomas McIntyre, Council member of the Okotoks-High River district, and E. W. Brunsden, Secretary of the Unity Council of Alberta.
